

Please leave New Jersey's Do Not Call List in place. This is a terrific effort, and must be left alone so that the working people of NJ are not bothered by telemarketers from around the world calling us during dinner.